

HFA: Beyond the CRB –
An Evening with the NY Chapter of the AIMP
Wednesday, November 19

November 10, 2008 – Key members of the Harry Fox Agency (HFA) management team will speak about how this leading U.S. music rights licensing organization will put the recent Copyright Royalty Board decision into action and their view on the new opportunities and challenges created by the ruling at the New York chapter of the Association of Independent Music Publishers (AIMP) event on Wednesday, November 19. The event begins at 5:30pm, and will take place at The Williams Club on 24 East 39th Street. The event is free to AIMP members and $15 for non-members. To RSVP, go to www.aimp.org.

The panel, moderated by Helene Blue, President of Helene Blue Musique Ltd, will include Nat Annamalai, VP Royalty Compliance; Lauren Apolito, VP Business Development; Maurice Russell, VP Licensing & Collections; Eric Scott, Manager, Publisher Services; Doug Shank, Business System Analyst; and Matt Wuolle, Senior Director, Distributions Technology. Together, they will provide an update on how the company has prepared for the latest developments in mechanical and other forms of licensing, and how the company continues to look ahead to find and administer new opportunities for the publishers it represents.

About HFA

Established in 1927 by the National Music Publishers' Association, HFA represents almost 36,000 music publishers for their licensing needs in the United States, issuing licenses and collecting and distributing the associated royalties. In addition to being the premier mechanical licensing agent in the U.S., which includes CDs, ringtones, digital downloads, interactive streams, limited downloads and more, HFA is dedicated to finding new ways for its affiliated publishers to recognize value for their catalogs, including lyrics and tablature. Further, HFA provides collection and monitoring services to its publisher clients for music distributed and sold in over 95 territories around the world. For more information about HFA, or to become an affiliate publisher or a licensee, see www.harryfox.com.

HFA Contact:
Laurie Jakobsen
212-922-3297
press@harryfox.com