HFA Now Represents the Catalog of Garth Brooks

New York, NY – July 23, 2010 – The Harry Fox Agency, Inc. (HFA), the nation’s leading provider of copyright, licensing, royalty distribution, and outsourced technology services for the music industry, is pleased to announce that Garth Brooks has made his prestigious catalog available for licensing with HFA. Licenses can now be obtained for Brooks’ compositions in cover recordings for CDs, permanent digital downloads (PDDs), ringtones and interactive streams.

“We are excited to join the HFA family,” said Bob Doyle, President of Major Bob Music, who represents No Fences Music, Garth Brooks’ publishing company. “HFA is a trusted partner to songwriters and publishers and we are very impressed with their technological innovation and breadth of music industry knowledge.”

“We are honored to represent Mr. Brooks’ extensive body of work,” said Ed Hunt, Senior Vice President of Publisher Services and Distributions for HFA. “As with all of our affiliates, Mr. Brooks can expect uncompromised service and access to the multitude of business support opportunities we offer.”

About HFA

Established in 1927 by the National Music Publishers’ Association, HFA represents over 45,000 music publishing clients for their licensing needs in the United States, issuing licenses and collecting and distributing the associated royalties. In addition to being the premier mechanical licensing agent in the U.S., which includes CDs, ringtones, permanent digital downloads, interactive streams, limited downloads and more, HFA is dedicated to finding new ways for its affiliated clients to recognize value for their catalogs, including lyrics and tablature. Further, HFA provides collection and monitoring services to its publisher clients for music distributed and sold in over 100 territories around the world. HFA also provides administration services for major content providers and distributors. For more information about HFA, or to become an affiliate publisher or a licensee, see www.harryfox.com.

About Major Bob Music

Bob Doyle is owner and President of Major Bob/Rio Bravo music, a well-known publishing and production entity. Bob Doyle started Major Bob Music when he left his job as Director of Member Relations at ASCAP, 7 years tenure, and mortgaged his home to work with a then unknown singer songwriter who he fully believed in, named Garth Brooks. Garth Brooks has since become the #1 selling solo artist in U.S. History. Brooks has written 14 of his 25 #1 singles for Doyle’s publishing company. Today, Major Bob’s copyrights have been recorded by Country,

R&B, Rock, Contemporary Christian and Pop artists and have been heard in Movies and TV Shows throughout the world. As a publisher, Doyle's companies are credited with forty-two ASCAP publisher awards, six BMI Million Performance Songs, and SESAC Song of the Year "The Fool" (Lee Ann Womack). Chart hits include "American Honey" (Lady Antebellum), "City On Our Knees" (TobyMac), "Strange" (Reba McEntire) "Fast Cars and Freedom" (Rascal Flatts), "There Goes My Life" (Kenny Chesney) and Doyle also co-wrote the #1 song "Good Ride Cowboy" (Garth Brooks).
